REPUBLICAN NOMINATIONS

FOR PRESIDENT.

WILLIAM H. TAFT
OF OHIO.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT.

JAMES S. SHERMAN
OF NEW YORK.

"We are equal to anything that presents itself in life; otherwise it would not present itself to us. The very fact that a duty to perform comes to us shows that we have the power to do it, otherwise it would not come."

The Socialist candidate for governor received 959 votes this year, and the Prohibition candidate received 928. In consequence of this small vote both parties again lose their place on the official ballot.

"Queer Bird Homes" is the title of an article published recently in Germany by Harry Maas, ornithologist, in which many instances are cited to show that the tastes of birds as to their habitations vary. A swallow's nest under the eaves of a railway passenger coach he speaks of as most peculiar. Not so much because it is a car, but because this particular one made daily trips between two places. Being on the move about half the time, it was hard to say when the swallows were undisturbed. The nest remained flying homeward, and a little family of three finally emerged from it. He quotes from "Kosmos," in which a nobleman relates that for twelve years a goldfinch pair came regularly to his garden and built a nest out of forget-me-nots. The habit of the birds was so well known that a bed of the little flowers was cultivated expressly for them. In the historical museum of Soletta, a city in which watchmaking is the chief industry, there is a bird's nest made of watch springs. It was discovered in a tree, where it had been built by a watchmaker. The little feathered architects used the metal for the outside and to hold the soft lining.

A tailor whose patrons belong to the fashionable class has just returned from Europe and says that efforts are being made to improve the regulation evening costume for men. "Dinner jackets" have heretofore varied only as to pockets or no pockets, shawl roll, or peaked lapel and binding or no binding. This year a strong effort is being made to break the color line, and green, blue and brown coats have been seen in clubs and restaurants. There seems still to be some doubt as to the rest of the costume, when the colored coat is worn. Should the necktie be white or black and should the waistcoat be of the conventional "fancy" garment or of the same material as the coat? All these combinations have been seen in public places, but none has yet been pronounced "smart." Evening coats with black velvet collars and piping of velvet on the cuffs and full cuffs of that material will be worn. At a dinner party given by an American at Lucerne three of the men guests wore dark colored evening coats; a gray headed head in the party was conspicuous in a violet coat, black satin waistcoat and ruffled shirt. Whether any of these styles will become popular remains to be seen.

Adrian Wilson of the firm of Wilson & Silbey, sailmakers of Boston, had a very interesting article on the cut, make, handling and care of sails in the Engineering, in which he says: "It must not be taken for granted that the sloop or schooner rig is away and beyond all question faster in windward than all others. It may be a surprising statement, but it is true, that these lines to learn that a great many square-rigged vessels are remarkably fast in windward work." Mr. Wilson mentions several half-rigged brigs, or brigantines, that "would beat out a fleet of fore-and-afters in a day's work to windward," and The Marine Journal comments as follows: "We do not question Mr. Wilson's statement, although we have never thought that any vessels with yards could do windward work with a modern-built fine-modelled fore-and-after." The writer witnessed one exhibition that sustains Mr. Wilson's statement. A large fleet of three-masted schooners, bound to the westward, was coming out of the Penobscot river. The wind was strong from the southwest. A barkentine was at the tail end of the fleet, coming out of the river when the leaders were below Saturday Cove. When off Camden the barkentine had overhauled and passed the schooners and was well in the lead.

MAINE MUSIC FESTIVAL.

An Array of Artists That Should Draw Out Music Lovers.

The Maine Music Festival this year is going to be the biggest thing ever in music circles. Have you noticed the list of artists? Have you compared them with other festivals in other cities? Do you realize that we have two great prima-donnas? Ellen Besch Yaw who is called the matchless high soprano of the world, and Jeanne Jomell, the sensation of the Manhattan Opera House last season, the star of the Worcester Festival, the greatest new dramatic soprano, called a second Nordica at Ocean Grove last week. Then there is Madame Caroline Mhr-Hardy the best church and concert singer in New York, with a voice as fine as Elder-Kelsey, and Isabelle Bouton the glorious contralto who is remembered as a Festival favorite. What a matchless quartette of women. And the men—two favorites, Beddoe, with his silvery tenor, and Fanning with his dramatic baritone. Watrous the great Metropolitan basso, will be a revelation to many. Marshall, the young Maine baritone with the beautiful Campanari voice and Kennedy, Hill and Mac-Nichol, all Maine singers with big futures before them, and excellent voices to use now. Really one must hear every concert to get all the good things offered this season. Don't miss the opera, or closing night, and be sure to be there for the opening.

John W. Thomas at The Courier-Gazette office has charge in this section for both Bangor and Portland. He can give any information desired and secure better seats than any one else.

Trustees Glad They Paid More

The Trustees of Fair Ground, Cobleskill, N. Y., were glad to pay 15 cents a gallon more for Devoe; and no wonder. Two other paint agents said it would take 100 gallons of their paint to cover the buildings.

The Devoe agent put it at 125 or less. It took 115.

Devoe saved them 25 gallons of paint and painting (worth $4 to $5 a gallon, as the painting costs two or three times as much as the paint) less 15 cents a gallon on 115 gallons. Say $140.

That's how to count the cost of paint. The cost of putting it on is $3 or $4 a gallon. You see what that means. Go by Devoe.

MRS. TAYLOR IN ENGLAND.

Sees Things Which Could Be Improved, But Doesn't Expect Her Suggestions To Be Acted Upon For 100 Years, At Least.

There are three things in Liverpool that reminds you that you are not in an American city; the two-story electric cars, the chimney pots, and the tall hats worn by the men, stovepipe hats having not yet gone out of fashion in England.

My ride across England occupying four hours was delightful. Only the hedgerows dividing the fields, the chimney pots, and the houses all built of brick, reminded me I was out of America. The maple, oak, elm, willow and apple trees, the golden rod, daisies, buttercups, yarrow and wild carrot blossoms all looked like home. The language is strange. When anyone speaks directly to me, by paying the strictest attention I can understand the words but when they are chatting together I can understand no more than if it were French or Chinese.

In Liverpool I was highly complimented. Sunday evening I spoke in a church following a missionary whose home is in Indiana, whom it was hard to understand. After meeting several told me that I spoke very clearly, they could understand every word I said, and one man said, "I should think you were English. When you said 'scientific' and 'mathematics' you enunciated your syllables so distinctly it was just beautiful, just like us English." Had you heard his enunciation you would appreciate the compliment. He pronounced you like yew, and just like just, only so very flat and strong it set the teeth on edge to hear him.

You will be surprised to know that during the last three days I have been in circuses not less than a dozen times. When I enquired the way to Cook's Bank and was told to go to Oxford circus, and take a bus to Holburn circus, and then walk to Ludgate circus, I thought the spirit of P. T. Barnum had truly descended upon London, but I soon learned that in London a circus is simply where streets cross in a circuitous way.

Four or five days in London is enough for an ordinary traveller. Westminster Abbey, the National Gallery, the Tower, St. Paul's Cathedral, the India Museum, Houses of Parliament and Royal Castle at Windsor are the principal sights.

Prices are about the same as in America. The only article I have found cheaper is gloves.

Windsor Castle reminded me of our home in Rockland, there being a fine view from every window. It covers as much ground, however as a small village, and is separated from Windsor only by a street, the castle walls rising on one side of the street, and the village stores and railroad station fronting the other side. We went over part of the inside. What interested me most at the castle was the view on all sides, and what interested me most at the Tower were the crown jewels and coronation robes, except, perhaps, the prisoners' cells, and a tiny model of a rack on which was strapped a doll about six inches long. In my imagination I have seen the martyrs ever since. At the British Museum the illuminated Manuscripts are wonderful, but after walking the several miles between Egyptian and Grecian ruins I can find rest and comfort in sitting in Cook's rooms and writing when I have already waited over an hour for my tickets which were promised me at 2 o'clock.

Tomorrow I expect to go to Paris. It has rained here every day since I came, and the London people do not know how to be comfortable. I complained of the cold to one lady and she sweetly suggested that if I went to bed I would soon be warm. Our chambers are lighted only by candles, and the guests shiver and blink awhile and then seek the drawing room which is lighted by gas, but with no fire. Windsor Castle is lighted by candles only, so candles are all a loyal subject desires. I asked if a fire would not be lighted today and was informed, "O, no, we never light fires until winter begins."

The clerks, servants, policemen, not to mention everybody is polite. On all the streets I have frequented there are no railways. Cabs, hansom, and buses are used, the buses being operated some of them by motors and some by horses. Every one says "Thank you." I went into a store, and the following dialogue ensued:

"What shall I show you, Madame?"

"Please show me some handkerchiefs."

"Thank you. Some lady's?"

"Yes."

"Have you initial handkerchiefs?"

"Thank you. Yes, Madame. What letter?"

"Thank you."

"What is the price?"

"Thank you. One thirteenth penny."

"I will take six."

"Thank you."

The clerk said "Thank you" when she took the money and when she handed me the parcel.

The people walk quite rapidly upon the streets, faster than I do usually. I remember one friend in Rockland told me that I walked too fast, that she heard one woman say that she thought I could not be accustomed to move in the first society, I rushed along the street so. Notwithstanding my acute distress on thus being put down by the Rockland aristocracy, I did not slacken my pace, and now I congratulate myself that while my speech is American and "bewareth" me, my gait is Londonian.

By the way, coming over I asked some English ladies how they travelled. "Third class," they replied. I remarked, "In America we hear it said that only the Royal family and Americans travel first class in England." One replied, "Here we say, 'the Royal family and fools,' and the other remarked, 'I have heard it 'Fools and Americans.' So I am mistaken for one of the Royal family I took a third class carriage. They are very comfortable and clean, being upholstered nicely. They have two seats and when full will hold ten persons, the seats facing each other. They are more comfortable and sociable than our railway carriages. One woman told me that the only difference she could discern between first and second class was the color of the cushions.

I have decided that when Parliament asks me if I can make any suggestions for improvement in London I shall suggest three changes: That the wearing by the soldiers of that horrid bear-skin cap be limited to zero weather; that advertisements be banished from the outside of public carriages and railroad stations; and that the outside of St. Paul's and other public buildings be scoured so that the color of the original stone can be seen. Then if they ask for further hints I shall observe that the store windows (they call them shop windows) would look finer if the articles exhibited were not so close together. The carrying out of these suggestions will doubtless take a century at the rate England moves, so I will leave other improvements to future reformers.

One coming to London should not fail to visit the Bible House and the Missionary Institute at Islington. I can describe no more now as I must start for Paris in a few more days.

Miss Evie Sullivan and Miss Nellie Winslow returned Wednesday morning from a ten days' visit to the Boston and New York markets, in the interest of the garment and waist departments of the Simonson Dry Goods Co.

YOUR FAVORITE POEM

To Mary Unwin.

Mary I want a lyre with other strings,
Such aid from Heaven as some feign'd they draw.
An eloquence scarce given to mortals, new
And undelivered by praise of mortal things,
That ere through age or wear I shed my wings
I may record thy worth with honor due,
In verse as musical as thou art true,
And that immortalizes whom it sings—
But thou hast little need. There is a book
By seraphs writ with beams of heavenly light,
On which the eyes of God not rarely look,
A chronicle of actions just and bright,
There all thy deeds, my faithful Mary, shine;
And since thou own'st that praise, I spare thee mine.
—W. Cowper.

POLITICAL POINTS

The correction of an error in the count at Eastport has made a change of 25 votes in favor of the Republican ticket in Washington county thereby giving the Democrats one less senator than they were boasting about. If that party achieved any triumph in the election of Sept. 14 it is certainly not manifest in the Legislature-elect.

Oct. 1st Governor Cobb will issue proclamations calling a special election in the second and fourth districts caused by the resignation of Congressmen Littlefield in the second district and the death of Congressman Powers in the fourth district. These elections will be held on the same day as the national election, Nov. 3, and are for the short terms of congress.

Complete official returns from the third congressional district gave Congressman Burleigh 2,770 plurality, an increase of 889 over his plurality of two years ago. Mr. Burleigh ran 1,279 votes ahead of his ticket in the district.

Every city and town in Androscoggin county was represented in Poland Friday night when a reception was extended to Hon. Bert M. Fernald, Governor-elect of the state, in honor of his election. The reception was held at Mr. Fernald's home and was attended by over 600 people. Hon. Hiram W. Ricker presided. Speeches were made by Mr. Fernald, Hon. John P. Swasey of Canton, Representative-elect to Congress, Hon. Joseph M. Libby of Mechanic Falls and Daniel Hutchinson of New York, an uncle of Mr. Fernald. Music was furnished by the Poland band and the Poland Spring House orchestra. Refreshments were served on the lawn at the close of the speech making. The reception was the largest social event ever held in the town and was an entirely non-partisan affair.

Portland Press-It will take the Democrats some time to get control of the Legislature at the rate they are going. They gain one senator, having elected eight senators seven in the last Legislature, but they suffer a considerable loss in the House, where there will be 54 Democratic representatives to 65 in 1909. The Legislature will stand: Senate—32 Republicans, 5 Democrats; House—57 Republicans, 5 Democrats; unless complete returns change the last figures slightly.

WHY MR. GARDNER LOST

Something Happened Between Thursday and Monday, He Says.

Obadiah Gardner, the defeated Democratic candidate for governor, was a visitor in Bath Friday.

In a conversation with a Times reporter he said: "If the election had been held Thursday I would have been elected, but something happened between that time and Monday."

Mr. Gardner is cheerful and does not in the least show the effects of his strenuous campaign. At present he is interested in a commercial enterprise which he expects great things of. He is a member of a company which manufactures a mowing machine without a cog about its makeup and the best cutting of any mowing machine to operate on the market. It is something new and attracting much attention.

Friday Mr. Gardner, John Clifford and Mr. Gifford of Waterville, had the six-foot blade of the machine through sixty feet of grass to demonstrate how easy it would work. Mr. Gardner will cover the country for his firm in the interest of this new invention.—Bath Times.

CONVENTION'S CLOSING HOURS.

W. C. T. U. Re-elected Mrs. Stevens For Thirty-Second Term.—The Enthusiasm Which Arkansas Caused.—Mrs. Stevens Answered a Question.

The closing day's session of the W. C. T. U. state convention was by all odds the most interesting and enthusiastic of the three. It was marked not only by the election of officers which is always an inspiring occasion, but by the demonstration which followed the receipt of the glad news that Arkansas had joined the list of states which have statewide prohibition of Arkansas. The executive committee was in session in the vestry when the word came, and a prayer service was being held in the convention hall. Miss Anna Gordon received the news from a correspondent, and at once hastened to the executive committee room, whence came the sound of loud hand-clapping testifying to the joy which it created there. The committee adjourned with all possible haste and returned to the convention hall, where the delegates were being armed with flags.

W. C. T. U. songs were sung, and when all the delegates were in their seats Mrs. Lillian M. N. Stevens read the dispatch from Arkansas. The scene which followed is one that can be understood only by those who have seen a convention swung by some mighty influence. The delegates rose to their feet waving their flags or applauding. The white ribbon cheer was given. It is as follows:

White Ribbon! White Ribbon!

As soon as it could be written the following telegram was sent on its long journey to Little Rock, Arkansas, to Mrs. Lulu A. Markwell, president of the W. C. T. U. in the new dry state.

"Prohibition Maine greets Prohibition Arkansas and sends love, gratitude and congratulations."

In the course of her remarks to the convention concerning this latest white ribbon victory Mrs. Stevens said that her faith in the women of Arkansas had never wavered, but that the continued silence in that direction had caused her a deal of worry. The incident was the talk of the day in the convention hall and the remaining sessions were marked by renewed enthusiasm.

The election of officers resulted in the unanimous choice of the same board. Mrs. Lillian M. N. Stevens enters upon her 32d year as president. When the vote was announced by Mrs. R. C. Hall, who was temporarily occupying the chair, the convention applauded vociferously, and Mrs. Stevens was presented with a bouquet of flowers by Mrs. M. P. Hanly of Appleton, and a touching benediction was pronounced by Mrs. Eliza Foster. In a brief speech acknowledging these tributes Mrs. Stevens said that she felt a much greater responsibility now than she did 32 years ago, for she realized that the demands upon her time and services were much more exacting. She renewed her pledge of loyalty to the W. C. T. U. of Maine, the nation and the world. Miss Isobel H. Stacey of East Brownfield was re-elected corresponding secretary for a third term. Miss Clara M. Farwell of Rockland was re-elected recording secretary for her 28th year. Of her valued services in that capacity, or her devotion to the cause, there is small need to speak. The W. C. T. U. of Maine will be glad to honor Miss Farwell as long as she cares to remain in office. Miss Farwell is particularly fortunate in having as an assistant recording secretary Mrs. Althea G. Quimby of North Turner, who was re-elected for her fifth term. The writer wishes to take this opportunity of thanking Mrs. Quimby for the many favors received from her during the convention. Mrs. Adelaide Johnston of Fort Fairfield was re-elected treasurer for her 15th term. It is doubtful if another state in the union has more competent list of officials than Maine.

Delegates to the national convention which is to be held in Denver, Oct. 23-25, were elected as follows: Miss Edith N. Oakes, Foxcroft; Mrs. Carolyn S. Pogg, Augusta; Mrs. Mary W. Thomas, Saco; Mrs. E. N. Blanchard, Lewiston; Mrs. Helen A. Thomas, Greene; Mrs. Augusta Hunt, Portland; Mrs. Helen Daggett, Waldoboro; Mrs. Leila B. Howe, Enfield; Mrs. Josephine Stanley, Southwest Harbor; Miss Carrie Jackson and Mrs. Susie Thompson, Friendship. The following alternates were chosen: Mrs. E. A. G. Stacey, East Brownfield; Mrs. Caroline Pettibone, Bangor; Mrs. Jennie White, Dennysville; Mrs. Annie Blaisdell, Turner and Mrs. Helen Delano, Bath.

At the beginning of the Friday afternoon session Mrs. G. D. Farmer of Rockland rendered a beautiful solo. The memorial service, conducted by Mrs. R. C. Hall, paid sacred tribute to 89 members who have passed away in the last year. Beautiful flowers from Dover and Rockland graced the altar. Prayer was offered by Mrs. E. A. G. Stacey, remarks upon the lives of the deceased workers were made by Mrs. Stevens and appropriate vocal selections were sweetly and impressively sung by Mrs. Herrick.

Mrs. Stevens at this session announced that she would move for a change in the constitution making the state dues 40 cents instead of 30, as it was the recent election.

What Next in My County? was a topic which evoked some very interesting replies from the county presidents. Mrs. Quimby, president of the Androscoggin county union, said that the next thing in her county would be to influence the home so that it would result in a different note than that cast by the recent election.

Knox, Penobscot and Waldo counties participated in the county song contests. Knox county was allowed the services of Mrs. Sarah Hall Herrick on this occasion.

The prize banner for proportionate membership gain was awarded to Waldo county. A new membership contest was inaugurated, the 16 counties of the state being divided among two captains. Mrs. L. H. Wright of Parkman and Miss May McCusick of Piscataquis.

Mrs. Rebecca Lawrence of Somerset county was made a life member upon payment of the usual fee, which was done by the county union.

Mrs. Margaret Dye Ellis of Washington, D. C. was presented to the convention in session at T. Combs.

It was voted to continue the Crusader Monthly subscriptions to all lighthouse children along the coast.

While the "Officers hour" was in progress one of the members asked this question of Mrs. Stevens: "What power has the governor of this state to enforce the law?"

The answer was both prompt and emphatic.

"No other governor," said Mrs. Stevens, "has done as much for Maine as Governor Cobb. He has not done everything because he is not gifted with an Almighty power. Don't blame him if the law has not been properly enforced in your section. Place the blame on the officials where it belongs. Start a sentiment that will make them do something. It is a mistake to think that the governor has control of every man, woman and child in the state."

"Somebody has asked why we don't impeach the delinquent officials. Do you know how few men in public life have been impeached? Attempt to do that and the offender will pose as a martyr, and it is impossible to impeach him on account of a silly sentiment."

"Oh! that any white woman should forget the service that Governor Cobb rendered when he vetoed the repeal of the Sturgis law. That bill has been a blessing for us and we are going to keep it or have something better."

The report of the department of Homes for Homeless Children brought out the interesting statement that the W. C. T. U. has cared for or found homes for more than 500 children. The Auburn Union, for instance, never allows a child retained at the city farm. The superintendent looks after children who are kept out of school for want of clothes, and sees that they are provided. Mrs. Sarah Lord Cram of Kennebunk has just been appointed to the charge of this very important department.

Other departments of W. C. T. U. work which were reported during the convention, either through the superintendent or some of the workers, were as follows: Systematic Giving, Mrs. Susan M. Grant; W. C. T. U. Medal Contests, Mrs. Lydia Bartlett, Elliot; Work Among Soldiers and Sailors, Mrs. Lizzie H. Towle, Augusta; Editor's Report, "Star in the East," Mrs. Gertrude Stevens Leavitt, Portland; Business Manager's Report, "Star in the East," Miss Flora S. Dunton, Portland; "The Union Signal" and "Crusader Monthly," Mrs. Y. E. Rollins, Winthrop Center; Young Woman's Branch, Miss Ella P. J. F. GREGORY & SON, question of Mrs. Stevens: "What power has the governor of this state to enforce the law?"

The answer was both prompt and emphatic.

"No other governor," said Mrs. Stevens, "has done as much for Maine as Governor Cobb. He has not done everything because he is not gifted with an Almighty power. Don't blame him if the law has not been properly enforced in your section. Place the blame on the officials where it belongs. Start a sentiment that will make them do something. It is a mistake to think that the governor has control of every man, woman and child in the state."

"Somebody has asked why we don't impeach the delinquent officials. Do you know how few men in public life have been impeached? Attempt to do that and the offender will pose as a martyr, and it is impossible to impeach him on account of a silly sentiment."

"Oh! that any white woman should forget the service that Governor Cobb rendered when he vetoed the repeal of the Sturgis law. That bill has been a blessing for us and we are going to keep it or have something better."

The report of the department of Homes for Homeless Children brought out the interesting statement that the W. C. T. U. has cared for or found homes for more than 500 children. The Auburn Union, for instance, never allows a child retained at the city farm. The superintendent looks after children who are kept out of school for want of clothes, and sees that they are provided. Mrs. Sarah Lord Cram of Kennebunk has just been appointed to the charge of this very important department.

Other departments of W. C. T. U. work which were reported during the convention, either through the superintendent or some of the workers, were as follows: Systematic Giving, Mrs. Susan M. Grant; W. C. T. U. Medal Contests, Mrs. Lydia Bartlett, Elliot; Work Among Soldiers and Sailors, Mrs. Lizzie H. Towle, Augusta; Editor's Report, "Star in the East," Mrs. Gertrude Stevens Leavitt, Portland; Business Manager's Report, "Star in the East," Miss Flora S. Dunton, Portland; "The Union Signal" and "Crusader Monthly," Mrs. Y. E. Rollins, Winthrop Center; Young Woman's Branch, Miss Ella P. Merrill; Loyal Temperance Legion Branch, Miss Anna Gordon; Mercy, Mrs. A. R. Larrabee, Lewiston; Peace and Arbitration, Miss Alice Douglas, Bath; The Press, Miss Mary L. French, Auburn; Work Among Railroad Employees, Mrs. Helen Thomas, Greene; Securing Homes for Homeless Children, Miss Jennie Antholme, South Portland; Anti-Narcotics, Mrs. Florence Nickerson, Portland; Franchise, Mrs. L. H. Wright; School Savings Banks, Miss Ella Barton, Augusta; Social Meetings and Red Letter Days, Mrs. Harriet Loring, Otisfield; W. C. T. U. Institutes, Mrs. Evelyn Harvey, Kenduskeag; Fairs and Open Air Meetings, Mrs. Edith N. Oakes.

The concluding session of the convention Friday evening opened with Scripture reading and prayer by Miss Estelle M. Brainerd of Rockland. Music was furnished by the First Baptist Choral Association, the quartet and Mrs. Herrick. The address by Mrs. Ellis was a fitting close to a successful convention. She paid a fine tribute to Congressman Littlefield, saying that it made her heart sick to think of going back to Washington to find that noble champion of prohibition absent from the ranks. Speaking of Senator Frye, Mrs. Ellis exclaimed: "What grand men you send from Maine!" Mrs. Ellis told of her conversation with the late Speaker Reed in regard to the validity of the anti-liquor law. "I have come to you," said Mrs. Ellis because I want to get the best advice obtainable. "If you have got the anti-liquor law," said the great statesman, "hang onto it." This was only a few weeks before his death.

Mrs. Ellis told of the protection which the big gathering, were as follows: Arrangements, Miss Clara M. Farwell, chairman; entertainment, Mrs. R. C. Hall, chairman; Miss Lizzie Morey, secretary; decorations, flags and banners, Mr. E. H. Crier, floral decorations, Miss Carrie E. Brainerd, Mrs. C. I. Burrows, Mrs. A. W. Cook, Mrs. W. V. Vansant; accompanists, Miss Edith Greenhalgh, Miss Alice Pike.

The sole "Victory," splendidly rendered by Mrs. Sarah Hall Herrick was the closing feature of the program. The convention was attended by 185 delegates and a large number of other visitors. The convention committees, who are entitled to a great deal of praise for their successful handling of the big gathering, were as follows: Arrangements, Miss Clara M. Farwell, chairman; entertainment, Mrs. R. C. Hall, chairman; Miss Lizzie Morey, secretary; decorations, flags and banners, Mr. E. H. Crier, floral decorations, Miss Carrie E. Brainerd, Mrs. C. I. Burrows, Mrs. A. W. Cook, Mrs. W. V. Vansant; accompanists, Miss Edith Greenhalgh, Miss Alice Pike.

The Petticoat's Fit Makes the Gown Effective

You know from experience that no matter how smoothly and perfectly your gown may fit, a petticoat which does not fit will spoil its good effect.

The new slim, hipless modes, especially require a petticoat that becomes part of the wearer, that doesn't gather, "bunch" or sag.

The Elite

Talk of the Town

Tomorrow's football game will be called at 3 p. m.

Double launching at Cobb, Butler & Co.'s yard Thursday.

Mrs. James Wright will remain in Rockland this winter, giving instruction in piano and organ playing.

Those going to the Union fair tomorrow and Thursday should remember that the morning train leaves at 7:45.

Yankee Temple, Pythian Sisters, holds its regular meeting Wednesday evening. The degree staff is requested to be present.

David S. Hall of Hope was a caller at The Courier-Gazette office yesterday. Mr. Hall is a well known farmer, and is serving his 12th year as selectman.

The regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held in the Y. M. C. A. rooms, Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. It is desired that all new members be present.

The circle suppers at the Methodist church were resumed last week with a very large attendance. The usual plan of holding circles fortnightly will be followed.

James Costello, who has been clerking at the Acadian House, Castine, the past summer, has returned here and resumed his position with the Guarantee Clothing Co.

The senior class of the high school gives a dance in Pillsbury hall next Friday evening—the first of a series. The high school dances are among the most popular given in this city.

Miss Della Aylward has bought Arthur L. Wilson's interest in the firm of Wilson & Aylward, and the firm name is now D. B. Aylward. Miss Aylward is, we believe, the only young woman in the city in sole charge of a fruit and confectionery business.

Announcements have been made at the executive department of the appointment by Governor Cobb of T. E. Libby of Vinalhaven, to represent the state of Maine at the centennial of the International Fisheries Congress to be held at Washington, D. C., on Sept. 22-26 of the current year.

At the memorial service of the W. C. T. U. Convention on Friday afternoon, were two beautiful floral tributes, the gift of Mrs. H. J. Billings to the Rockland Union, and memory of Miss Aliza Crie and Mrs. Lizzie Young Butler, active members of the society who have died during the past year.

The Baptist Men's League will have its opening meeting of the season at Crescent Beach tomorrow afternoon and evening. The afternoon will be devoted to sports of various kinds and at 6 p. m. a clam-bake will be provided by Landlord Smith of the Crescent Beach House. Members are accorded the privilege of inviting guests. The outing ought to furnish a deal of inspiration for the busy season which is approaching.

The football season in this city starts off tomorrow afternoon when Rockland High will be called upon to battle with one of the strongest teams in the state—Edward Little of Auburn. The game will be called at 3 p. m. and Manager Griffin states positively that the crowd must keep off the field. Otherwise the game will be suspended until the gridiron can be cleared. Rockland High has about half its old team in line this fall and can be counted upon to make a strong showing against the famed athletes of Edward Little High. The contest ought to call out a very large crowd. There are not many home games this season but they are first-class ones and deserve the most generous patronage the city can offer.

North Knox fair at Union opened this morning. Wednesday and Thursday are the big days, however, and a glance at the race cards show that good sport is promised. Wednesday's events include the 2.38 class, purse $100; and the 2.24 class, purse $200. Thursday's races will be the 2.30 class, purse $150, and the 2.21 class, purse $200. The following horses are entered: Charlie Mack, Georgia, Maxine, Carroll, Dot Hastings, Jinks, Topsy, Miss Avon, May S., Edmund, Mercy C., Rubat, Comfort, Prince Bayard, May Wonder, Sylvia Swift, Via Mala, Emily Galt, Pilot Nelson, George M., Nudawn, Bryan, Bunny B., Belle Wyman, Tommie Rogers, Charles N. Van Trump, Anona, Duad, Kassal and Hello Bill. There are plenty of favorites in this list and but little prospect of straight heat victories in any of the classes. The exhibits, both in the hall and outside, will be the best fair has ever offered and there will be all kinds of fun on the midway. Nobody stays at home who can possibly get to Union.

Anderson Camp, Sons of Veterans, resumes its regular meetings tomorrow night.

The term of school now in session closes Dec. 18, with a two days' recess at Thanksgiving time.

Union is the mecca of all pleasure seekers this week. Wednesday and Thursday are the big days. "There's a reason."

The First Baptist Choral Association serves a public dinner in the church parlors Thursday noon on the occasion of the double launching.

Next Sunday evening the service at the Methodist church is to be held in the main audience room at 7:15. Address by pastor and splendid musical program.

The dance given by the Silent Brothers last week netted $43 which is donated to Joseph Hamlin, a worthy member of Knox Lodge, who has considerable sickness in his family.

The Rockland Military Band gives its third annual ball at the Grange hall, Glencove, tonight. The posters say that "Farnham will have charge." What need for us to say anything more?

Mrs. E. B. Ingraham entertained the First Baptist Choral Association at her cottage at Ingraham Hill last evening. A delicious fish chowder was served supplemented with all the delicacies of the season. The evening was delightfully spent with music and games.

George Young had one of his feet so badly crushed in the Shepley quarry, Rockport, Friday, that it was necessary to amputate the member. The operation was performed at Knox hospital by Dr. Spear. Mr. Young was trying rock when the accident happened, undermining the stone which maimed him for life.

And the following item is from the Opinion, too: "That Rockland is growing a bit now, is shown by a memorandum handed us by Superintendent Moulton, who says: 'During the past two days, we have placed in school 45 scholars who have come into the city since the close of last term. These children represent 30 families that have recently become residents here.'"

The Knox and Lincoln Quarterly Conference of the Adventist faith will hold their next session at Monhegan Island, Sept. 24, holding over Sunday the 27th. Able ministers will be present to preach the word of life. There will be a reduced fare from Thomaston, Friendship, Port Clyde and Boothbay Harbor. All are welcome. $1.00 rate from all points to Monhegan and return.

The Common Council, which has held up the city bills and all other business for three weeks, held another meeting last night and was as docile as a lamb. The remaining roll of accounts and all the reports had an unanimous passage. Creating the councilmen will now better than go contrary to the wishes of Alderman Blackington and his associates. They have learned their little lesson.

J. W. Walker of Portsmouth, N. H., assistant superintendent of life saving stations, and C. E. Blake of Dover, Mass., who has the contract for building the lifeboat launching ways at the Whitehead Life Saving Station, were in Augusta Friday for the purpose of inspecting two launches at the mill of the Augusta Lumber Co., which will be used in the construction of the ways and which will be shipped to this city.

The janitors of the principal school buildings in this city are as follows: McLain building, J. T. Lathrop; high school building, W. A. McLain, 2d; Warren-street building, E. S. Simmons; Purchase-street building, John Lurvey; Crescent-street building, George W. Hicks; Highlands building, George Cox; Camden-street building, Charles Saunders; Benner-hill building, Henry Jones; Grace-street building, J. W. Thuis.

Frank B. Eaton of Vinalhaven, who was not indicted by the grand jury because the proper papers did not accompany the mittimus, was re-arrested Saturday, and yesterday forenoon was arraigned before Judge L. R. Campbell. Eaton was charged with carrying a battery upon William Wentworth, an aged truckman, whom he is alleged to have struck across the face twice with a sled-stake. Eaton was held for the January grand jury, and gave bail in the sum of $500.

The premium and committee list of the Pleasant Valley Grange fair has been issued. As usual the management is to make a special feature of the baby show and the showing of horses and oxen. All of the babies are to be given a souvenir, and a nice special premium will be given for twins at any age under three years, without regard to weight. F. E. Post is chairman of the fair this year and has the assistance of other capable officials. The fair will be held Oct. 6-8.

The Sturgis deputies have been in the public eye again the past few days. Yesterday they seized 170 quarts of whiskey, rum and wine. The agent was summoned to appear in court this forenoon. The latter part of the week the deputies raided Stephen Kavanagh's place on the Point, where they claim to have caught Kavanagh spilling the contents of a whiskey keg. He was convicted by Judge Campbell on search and seizure and held on a nuisance charge in the sum of $500.

Elsewhere in this issue is published the official vote of the city, county and district. The type is kindly loaned for this purpose by the Opinion, whose tabulation was the result in part of figures furnished for that paper and partly from figures furnished The Courier-Gazette. As published in the Opinion, however, there was an error, the vote for senator, Mr. Miller being credited with 90 votes too many, and Mr. Staples with a plurality corresponding. The error was discovered by Editor Otis and corrected before the type was loaned to us.

When Trifles Become Troubles
If any person suspects that their kidneys are deranged they should take Foley's Kidney Remedy at once and not risk having Bright's disease or diabetes. Delay gives the disease a stronger foothold and the ever-changing picture of the shipping. In some respects the work of the life-line preacher, as he says, will be adapted to our seaport city. Sea captains and sailors will find in the services much that will appeal to them, both in sermon and in song. Mr. Ufford will seek to raise funds during his absence from any one interested, and also from Rockland, where he desires to dwell the remainder of his days. If possible, he will try to have it known that the church which was built by a gospel song.

Landlord Donohue resumes personal management of the Narragansett hotel's dining room Thursday and will continue to run it on the high standard established by himself and wife.

Figure Building

IN its true sense, is not tight lacing. It is not squeezing the waist or harnessing the abdomen with ungainly burdensome straps.

The real art of figure-building, instead, is the easy, graceful, consistent molding of the form as Nature intended it to be molded.

The Gossard Corset builds artistic figures along Nature's lines.

THE Gossard CORSETS
"They Lace In Front"

Were designed by an eminent French artist who saw the need of a corset which really followed the lines of beauty and the lines of health—which would be easy to adjust and comfortable.

No woman needs to be told of the extra-comfort front-lacing means.

No more stretching the neck and shoulders, tugging at back corset strings. No more pressure of steels or unpleasant slipping at the back.

They are a priceless boon to the woman whose spine needs support, whose vital organs have become sadly misplaced because of wearing improper corsets. Immediately they relieve the wrong pressure, steady the spine, give free play to the lungs and the other vital organs.

You can wear a Gossard from rising to retiring in perfect comfort.

The surest proof of what the Gossard will do for you in the way of figure-building is the fact that you can wear a size smaller in the Gossard the second time you purchase one.

This is Gossard Exploitation week at our store. It is an interesting time to find out about the Gossard—while Miss Harpole is here. She is the manufacturer's own representative, and she can tell you many valuable points that will help you in developing your figure.

FULLER-COBB COMPANY

We open this week the GREATEST VALUE IN SUITS
at $15.00 to $30.00

ever shown in Maine. This may seem a very strong statement but if you will give us a chance to show our Suits, and take plenty of time to examine them properly we are sure you will be convinced that our statement is correct.

Don't think we show nothing but high priced exclusive styles. We show 200 suits at popular prices from $15.00 to $35.00 to select from, and you cannot see them in a few minutes.

We do show the most exclusive and highest grade garments that can be found east of Boston, and this Fall the creations we show excel all previous seasons.

Opera, Evening and Carriage Garments that are exquisite, $25.00 to $50.00

SUITS AND COSTUMES that range in price from $25.00 to $125.00 that are beautiful to look at, different in design and practical for Fall and Winter wear. Perfect in fit and workmanship. What more can be desired?

FULLER-COBB CO.

The Knox County Socialists netted $22 from their fair in Grand Army hall last week.

The Union Fair is in full swing and the horses are on the ground for the trots. There is plenty of water for everybody. An entirely wrong report got into circulation that there was a postponement.

There will be a double launching from Cobb, Butler & Co.'s store Thursday forenoon. The schooner Frank Brainerd will go overboard at 10 and will be christened with flowers by Mrs. Frank Brainerd of Portland, Conn. The schooner Lewiston will be launched at 10:30 and will be christened with flowers by one of Capt. T. J. Ginn's daughters. A large party will come here from Lewiston and Auburn, and there may be a special train.

A farewell party was given by Mr. and Mrs. P. Rosenberg at their residence, corner of Lincolnton and Broad streets, Sunday evening in behalf of their brother, Jack Rosenberg, who left on the boat Monday for Boston, whence he will go to Glens Falls, N. Y. A handsome pair of cuff links was presented to Jack by his friends, the presentation speech being made by Isadore Alperin. Light refreshments were served during the evening. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. P. Rosenberg and their daughter Pearl, Jack Rosenberg, Miss Lottie Rosenberg, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mitchell, Misses Fannie Alperin, Lena Korley, Wood Hersey, Helen Ryan, Mrs. Nellie Kenney, Miss Mollie Rosenberg, Miss Rachael Rosenberg, Ada Pettengill, Messrs. S. Alperin, Isadore Alperin, Henry Alperin, L. Rosenberg, Mr. Cohen and Mr. Epstein of Bangor, Mr. Wallace and Mr. Townsend of Boston, Mr. Spear of Boston, William Holmes, Eugene Frost, M. A. McCoy and Charles Crockett. The guests were received by Mr. and Mrs. P. Rosenberg and were finely entertained by P. Rosenberg, Miss Helen Ryan, Mr. Townsend and Mr. Wallace.

SHOT THROUGH THE BODY.

But Mr. Greer Will Survive—A Remarkable Accident Saturday.

R. L. Greer, a West Virginian, who has been in this city for some weeks on business connected with the Commerce of Fisheries, accidentally shot himself at a local hotel Saturday afternoon. The bullet, which was from a .32-caliber cartridge, passed completely through his body, about four inches below the heart. The man was able to walk to the ambulance and reports from the hospital indicate that there will be no serious consequences unless there are some complications not looked for at this time.

The sound of the revolver shot alarmed those in the hotel office, who immediately rushed in the direction of the sound. They found Mr. Greer standing in the middle of the room but partially clad, his underwear rapidly becoming saturated with blood. Dr. Hanson was immediately summoned, and while attending to his patient conducted a brief investigation. The bullet was found on the floor, where it had evidently rebounded after striking the mattress.

Mr. Greer stated that he had just arisen from bed and was about to pack his grip. In some way he must have disturbed his loaded revolver lying on the dresser, and the weapon was discharged directly at him.

He finished dressing without assistance, and walked to the ambulance as calmly as though nothing had happened. His escape from fatal injuries was a remarkable one.

Ladies should flock to Fuller-Cobb's store this week for the simple reason that Miss Harpole is there demonstrating the most excellent quality of the Gossard Corsets. This corset is rapidly taking the front ranks in popularity, and well it should for its good points are many and objectionable points none. Miss Harpole is a lady of charming personality and whose sole ambition is to advance the interests of the Gossard Corset. It is a pleasure to meet her and you can just believe that every word she says about the Gossard is absolutely true.

GOLDEN CROSS WON.

Law Court Holds That Hollis Patterson Had No Claim on Benefit Fund.

In the unique law case of Flora E. Patterson vs. the Supreme Commandery, U. R. G. C., a decision in favor of the defendant has just been handed down by the Law Court.

The plaintiff sued to recover $500 which she claimed was due her on account of the membership insurance of her son, Hollis L. Patterson, in the defendant order.

Young Patterson made written application for membership in the Ivanhoe Commandery, No. 415, of the Order of the Golden Cross, Sept. 26, 1906, passed his medical examination, paid his assessment of 41 cents and his quarterly dues amounting to 75 cents, but no membership fees were paid. He was killed Sept. 28, 1906, and before a certificate of insurance was issued to him. He died before the Supreme Medical Director of the Order had approved his application, though the application was approved on the same day, the medical director having no knowledge of Patterson's death. The assessment and dues paid to the Order were not returned.

The case was reported to Law Court on agreed statement, the constitution and by-laws of the Order to be a part of the case, and the court to determine whether the order was liable. R. I. Thompson for the plaintiff and F. S. Miller for the defendant.

The receipt, which is one of importance and general interest, was drawn by Associate Justice Savage, and is as follows:

"The by-laws of the defendant fraternal beneficiary organization prescribe the following steps to be taken by one desiring to become a member of the society. He makes a written application. His application is balloted upon. If the applicant is 'elected to receive the degree,' he is then examined in respect to his physical condition by the subordinate commandery medical examiner. If the result of this examination is favorable, he is initiated into the commandery with ritualistic ceremonies, having first paid certain fees and dues, including one assessment to the benefit fund. The application and medical examination are then forwarded to the supreme medical director of the organization for his approval or disapproval. If he approves the application is returned to the subordinate commandery by him and is sent by the proper officer to the Supreme Keeper of Records, and the initial assessment of the benefit fund, paid by the applicant before initiation together with assessments paid by members, generally on the first day of the following month, is forwarded to the supreme treasurer on or before the tenth day of the month. But the by-laws provide that no rights of membership in the order shall accrue by initiation, nor shall the applicant or his beneficiary possess any claim on the benefit fund, nor shall a benefit certificate be issued to the applicant, until said application has been approved by the Supreme Medical Director, and shall have been sent by the keeper of records of the subordinate commandery to the Supreme Keeper of Records. All the requirements hereinbefore mentioned having been performed and complied with, the applicant shall be received into membership in the order."

The plaintiff was the intended beneficiary of one Patterson, who made application for membership in a subordinate commandery and pursued the several steps above mentioned, and on Sept. 27, 1906, was duly initiated. His application and medical examination were forwarded to the supreme medical examiner, who on the next day, Sept. 28, approved the same. But earlier in the same day Patterson was accidentally killed.

I. Held—That the approval of the application by the supreme medical director was a condition precedent to beneficial membership, and, as such approval was not had in the lifetime of the applicant, he never became a beneficial member, and his beneficiary has no claim on the benefit fund.

Failure of the subordinate commandery to return or tender back the assessment advanced by Patterson does not stop the defendant from making this defense. Since Patterson never was a beneficial member, it did not lie in the power of any of the defendant's officers, by acts or omissions, to make him a member in effect.

Judgment for the defendant.

EAST FRIENDSHIP

School began here Tuesday, Sept. 8, under the instruction of Miss Ruth Monroe of Friendship.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bradford are visiting friends in Rockland and vicinity.

Miss Emma and Miss Sadie W. Davis went to Port Clyde recently.

Moses Orne and Hollis Burns went to Broad Bay, Waldoboro, Sunday, Sept. 13.

George Carter of Rockland was in this vicinity last week.

Miss Cora E. Davis has returned home from Monhegan, where she has been through the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Benj. Leimond visited friends in Rockland recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Ulysses Davis and little girl of Port Clyde spent a couple of days here recently visiting friends.

Mrs. Almada Grafton has been spending a few days in Thomaston, the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Lettie Beckett.

F. R. Hussey has been spending a few days with his brother, A. J. Hussey.

George Mathin, wife and daughter were at B. A. Leimond's, recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland Burns and little daughter Lucile, called on friends here Saturday, Sept. 12.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bradford and children, Maurice and Sidney went to Cushing, Sunday, Sept. 13.

YOU CAN'T CURE CONSTIPATION by taking purgatives, salts, or other drugs that act harshly or violently upon the stomach or bowels.

Ask any doctor, and he will tell you that purgatives of any character distend the bowels and weaken the elastic tissue.

To cure constipation, remove the cause. The cause of constipation is indigestion. If your food digests properly it would continue on from the stomach through the bowels, and would be eliminated without effort and with regularity.

Mi-o-na tablets cure constipation by curing your indigestion. It is not a purgative. It is a stomach tonic and more-it tones up, strengthens, invigorates, refreshes and injects new life into the worn out muscles of the stomach, and in a short time makes the stomach hardy enough to digest anything you eat. It is a powerful yet harmless stomach tonic, and its resistance to influence on the stomach is astonishing.

Try Mi-o-na for constipation. One box will cure you of indigestion; two boxes will relieve you of constipation; and best of all, Mi-o-na is such an economical remedy. A large box only costs 50 cents, and then, if you are not satisfied with results, C. H. Pendleton, druggist and optician, and W. H. Kittredge, druggist, will give you your money back.

Mi-o-na cures all stomach disorders whether acute or chronic, such as dyspepsia, vomiting, over-indulgence of the stomach, or any other sickness, stomach sickness of prospective mothers, etc.

Read this from the president of a New York corporation:

"I have been a terrible sufferer from dyspepsia and gastritis for two years. The most eminent physicians mentioned having been performed and complied with, the applicant shall be received into membership in the order."

The plaintiff was the intended beneficiary of one Patterson, who made application for membership in a subordinate commandery and pursued the several steps above mentioned, and on Sept. 27, 1906, was duly initiated. His application and medical examination were forwarded to the supreme medical examiner, who on the next day, Sept. 28, approved the same. RED NOSES.

Do you suffer the embarrassment of carrying around an extremely red nose? Or are you tortured with a red, blotchy, or pimply face? If so you are foolish to stand it long; it is the simplest and easiest thing in the world to get rid of. No matter what might have been the cause, the following harmless and inexpensive treatment will positively remove all traces of your embarrassment in from two to four weeks.

Get this prescription filled at any Drug Store. Clearola one-half ounces. Ether one ounce, Alcohol seven ounces. Mix and apply to the parts affected as often as possible, but morning and night anyway, allowing it to remain on as long as possible, never less than ten minutes, the longer the better, then you can wipe off the powdery film deposited on the skin.

You can get this put up at any Drug Store.

For any skin troubles this has no equal.

There will be no pictures at the Farwell opera house Wednesday as "The County Sheriff" will be the attraction, but on Thursday and for the balance of the week two big changes of pictures will be offered, made up of some of the best dramatic and comedy subjects yet offered at the Farwell; also several more good colored subjects which are bound to more than please all who see them.

THE LION AND THE MOUSE.

"The Lion and the Mouse," which Henry B. Harris will present at the Farwell opera house, Oct. 26, is the first play to be based on frenzied finance conditions and its timely theme has much to do with its sensational success, because of the public insisting in identifying the lion with one of America's money barons the play has attracted widespread comment from newspapers and magazines all over the country.

CLARA TURNER CO.

Local theatregoers are all looking forward to the engagement of Miss Clara Turner and her excellent stock company, which comes to the Farwell opera house for one week, commencing Monday, Oct. 12.

MRS. WIGGOS.

Too much cannot be said of the engagement of Klaw & Erlanger's big production of "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," which comes to the Farwell opera house on Saturday, Oct. 17, with an all-star cast and car load of special scenery.

SKY FARM.

For the first time in eight years theatregoers will have the pleasure of once more seeing the greatest of all rural plays, "Sky Farm," which is without doubt one of the best plays that will be at the Farwell opera house this season. The date is Wednesday, Oct. 7. Surely every one who ever saw this great play will want to see it again. Nothing like it since "The Old Homestead."

THE COUNTY SHERIFF.

"The County Sheriff," billed to appear at the Farwell opera house tomorrow night, Sept. 23, is the latest play from the pen of Kathleen Farrer, is as bright, interesting, witty, quick, dramatic and delightful as anything

"Lady Windermere's Fan" will not play in Thomaston as many of us hoped. The management fear that Watts' hall stage would not be large enough for the big second act of the play. But the Thomaston people will have an opportunity to see the play at Farwell opera house, Rockland, on Monday evening, Sept. 28. Tickets, which are now on sale, are 50c. Seats checked at opera house box office on Sept. 25, 26 and 28. Get your seats early as a great demand for seats is expected. The play will be under the auspices of "The Elks," and under the direction of Mrs. John Bird. There will be patronesses, special programmes, decorations, in fact, everything to make it a pretty social affair. Cars after the play.

A large crowd turned out yesterday at The Silver Theatre to see the great picture "The Runaway Horse." This same picture will be shown this Tuesday evening.

Tickets for the D. A. R. course of entertainments will be checked at the G. I. Robinson drug store on Saturday, Sept. 26, at 9 o'clock a. m. The course is as follows: Sept. 26, Scotch Singers; Nov. 4, F. O. Harrell, magician; Dec. 17, Judge Geo. D. Alden, lecturer; Jan. 13, Elbert Hubbard, lecturer.

The Elks' English play, "Lady Windermere's Fan" is to be put on at the Farwell opera house next Monday night. This is the very successful English play recently staged in Camden before a most critical summer audience, in which several of our best amateurs appeared. It is to be presented under the direction of Mrs. John Bird, for the benefit and under the auspices of Rockland Lodge of Elks. The committee in charge are doing everything in their power to make the play a success, and have placed tickets for sale at the drug store of C. C. McDonald and with Arthur F. Brown of the committee. Seats will be reserved for Thomaston and Camden patrons, so you will be well provided for.

The Ladies of the G. A. R. were royally entertained at the home of Mrs. A. O. Keene, Church elevation, last Thursday. A sumptuous picnic dinner was served on the veranda at noon of which about 35 had the pleasure of partaking. Voted one of the most pleasant gatherings of the season.

Every bottle warranted, but not one returned, is the report regarding Dr. Seth Arnold's Balsam, (the best summer remedy) from a large number of druggists in the South. This balsam is warranted to you by the G. I. Robinson Drug Co. of Thomaston.

How to Get Strong.

P. J. Daly, of 1247 W. Congress street Chicago, tells of a "great" remedy for "strong." He says: "My mother, who is old and was very feeble, is deriving so much benefit from Electric Bitters, that I feel it my duty to tell those who need a tonic and strengthening medicine about it. In my mother's case a marked gain in flesh has resulted, insomnia has been overcome, and she is steadily growing stronger." Electric Bitters quickly remedy stomach, liver and kidney complaints. Sold under guarantee at Wm. H. Kittredge's drug store, Rockland; G. I. Robinson Drug Co., Thomaston; R. W. Wiley's drug store, Vinalhaven, 50c.

Passed Examination Successfully

James Donahue, New Britain, Conn., writes: "I tried several kidney remedies, and was treated by our best physicians for diabetes, but did not improve until I took Foley's Kidney Remedy. After the second bottle I showed improvement, and five bottles cured me completely. I have since passed a rigid examination for life insurance." Foley's Kidney Remedy cures backache and all forms of kidney and bladder trouble. Sold by all druggists.

Kodak will, in a very short time, enable the stomach to do the work it should do, and the work it should do to digest all the food you eat. It makes the stomach sweet and it is pleasant to take. It is sold here by W. H. Kittredge.

Pressure upon our columns compels omission of news letters today. They will appear in the next issue.

Mrs. Mary, wife of Captain Edward Anderson, died on Saturday evening at 7 o'clock at her home on Pearl street after a painful illness of several months, at the age of 79 years. The deceased has ever been an active member amongst the Ladies of the G. A. R., ever ready to lend a helping hand to those in need. She was a woman of sterling qualities and a loving wife. She leaves a husband and adopted daughter, Mrs. Leroy Horton, who were with her at the last. A brother, Sewell E. Montom, of Vinalhaven, was called here by her illness. Sympathy is extended to those left.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Marshall has returned, having visited her mother in Duck Harbor for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McKee, family and servants left Tuesday for their home in St. Louis, Mo., having spent the summer months at "Lakewood."

Austin Moody has charge of the addition which Mrs. Ruth Ordway is making in "Whitehall," Belfast Road. This addition will give the house 25 more rooms, making in all a house of about 60 rooms. Having had a crowded house all summer Mrs. Ordway looks for a large number next year and this will accommodate the patrons. The rooms will be large and comfortable.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Joyce returned last week to their home in Providence, R. I., having visited in town the past week, guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hobbs.

At the ball game on Saturday between "Wibur's Old Timers" and Camden High school the latter won out by the score of 5 to 2. A star catch was one of the features, made by Pearce in right field.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Jagels and son Frederick of East Orange, N. J., returned to their home on Monday, having spent the past few months with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Burd on Elm street.

Miss Montague, who so acceptably filled the position as second assistant in our high school, has arrived from Cambridge to fill the same position the next year.

In Social Circles

Mrs. Etta Mitchell and Mrs. Abbie Larrabee of Lewiston were guests of Mrs. C. H. Estabrook during the W. C. T. U. convention.

Mrs. B. A. Kinney and Mrs. George Cartland were entertained by Mrs. A. C. Hahn convention week.

J. F. Prescott of Northport was in town Thursday on business.

Harry J. Shaw of New York visited his former home on High street over Sunday. He says that the renovation of Gov. Hughes' disposal of what ever doubt there might have been about the Republicans carrying New York state for Taft. Asked concerning Gov. Hughes' own chances, Mr. Shaw said: "When public opinion is so strong that it compels the nomination of a candidate against the wishes of the machine and wire-pullers it shows that he has an immense backing. He is bound to be re-elected. His opponent, Lieut. Gov. Chandler, is, on the other hand, a thorough machine-made candidate, who in the past has never had anything but praise for Mr. Hughes."

Capt. William James Morton of Hammon, N. J., is the guest of his brother, Silas A. Morton, and other relatives in this city.

Hon. Charles H. Moses and wife of Portland were guests over Sunday of Collector and Mrs. Fred W. Wright. Mr. Moses is collector of the Portland district and one of the most prominent Republicans in Cumberland county.

J. S. Jenkins, local manager for the Swift Beef Co. is spending the week in Boston and New Haven, being the guest of his brother in the latter city. In his absence Jesse Strong is acting manager.

Charles A. Farwell, wife and sons Charles and Evans of New Orleans are guests for a few days at the Thonvick hotel. It is Mr. Farwell's first visit here in seven years. He is a member of the well known firm of Milliken & Farwell, and is one of the substantial business men in the South. "There can be only one reason for his coming when questioned as to the outcome of the Presidential election, 'Everybody is for Taft in the South and West. The Democrats have no use for Bryan down my way.'"

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Morton of Bradford, Mass., have been visiting friends and relatives in this vicinity. Mr. Morton returned to Massachusetts Thursday.

Miss Mae Walker returned to Wheaton Seminary last week.

Miss Lou Cobb left yesterday for Boston, where she will attend the Simmons school of domestic science and art.

Allen Bryant of Santa Rosa, Calif., was a recent guest of Charles Philbrook on the Owl's Head road.

Patrick Donohue of Pawtucket, R. I., is here on his first home visit in 15 years, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Kirk. While riding with some friends in Thomaston Sunday the horse became frightened and Mr. Donohue was thrown from the carriage, one of his arms being injured.

Jesse Rosenberg has returned to Harvard.

Mr. and Mrs. George Smith of Long Cove were guests at Mrs. Ruth C. Wright's Sunday. They came in their motor car, which was driven by their son Harry, who is an expert chauffeur though only 12 years of age. He has been driving since he was 10.

Accidents will happen, but the best regulated families keep Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil for such emergencies. It subdues the pain and heals the hurt.

IN SUPREME COURT

The first week of the September term was about as lifeless as anything could well be. A few divorce cases were heard but no decrees made, some minor matters were heard by the court, and two jury trials were had, and this together with the grand jury's work is the sum total of the week. It is expected that this week will be a busy one and that the jury will be kept going with civil and criminal matters. While an adjournment is looked for Friday or Saturday the term may continue into next week. The Pinkham manslaughter case will probably be reached by Wednesday or Thursday and is the most important matter to come up during the term.

William S. Burnham, Lucy C. Farnsworth, Adm. In this case the plaintiff sued to recover a balance of $55.57 claimed to be due on an account contracted by the late James R. Farnsworth, the account dating back as far as July 1, 1901. The plaintiff is a painter by trade and rented of Mr. Farnsworth a small building at the Northend for a paint shop. The plaintiff did the most of Mr. Farnsworth's work on his numerous stores and rooms and paid the shop rent in this way. The whole amount of his charges for the period covered by the writ were $133.57, and he gave Mr. Farnsworth credit for two tons of coal, $12, cash $15, and for rent at three dollars per month, $31, leaving a balance due as he claimed of $55.57. The defense was that there was nothing due. The plaintiff had charged for two days' work not rendered amounting to 45, the credit for coal should have been $17.50 as appeared by the bill, $22 in cash was paid and the rent should have been at the rate of five dollars per month for 23 months of $115. This would practically wipe out the entire bill.

Verdict for plaintiff for $79.59. Mortland for plaintiff; Starrett for the defendant.

The grand jury reported before the noon adjournment Saturday. There were 10 indictments, as follows:

John Ross, Rockland, for assault and battery upon Bertha Pollock, Aug. 8; same party for larceny of $1.75 from the person of Bertha Pollock.

Eugene Metcalf, Daniel Robinson and Benjamin Carter, Warren, for breaking, entering and larceny of goods to the value of $39.20 from the cottage at Warren owned by Fred G. Porter and George E. Gale of Rockland. Alleged crime took place April 15.

Ralph Gilmore and Arthur Willey, St. George, for manslaughter, by causing the death of William E. Pinkham at Port Clyde, July 2.

Fred A. Hevey, Worcester, Mass., for bringing a public charge into the state.

Fred Knight, John E. Pelkey, William H. Grant and Ollie Libby, liquor nuisance.

Saturday afternoon John Ross was arraigned on the indictments returned against him for larceny and assault and battery and pleaded not guilty to each charge. He gave bonds for his appearance from day to day in each case in the sum of $200 and was released from custody. Senator Staples will conduct his defense.

John Elwell of St. George, indicted at this term for the killing of William E. Pinkham on July 2, last, also pleaded not guilty on arraignment. R. I. Thompson appears in defense.

John Elwell of St. George, a simple minded boy who has been in jail for a number of months charged with setting fire to Odd Fellows' hall at Tenants' Harbor was discharged, the grand jury having returned no indictment against him.

Frank Eaton of Vinalhaven, recently bound over by Trial Justice Levi W. Smith for an alleged assault upon William Wentworth of the same town was also discharged from custody, as no one appeared against him before the grand jury and no record of the preliminary hearing was placed in the hands of County Attorney Howard.

Eaton was then immediately placed under arrest upon another warrant for the same charge issued by Judge Campbell.

The list of new criminal entries is quite a long one, as follows: Albert Jordan, assault and battery; Jeremiah Cochran, larceny; Sarah Trenholm, street walking; Charles Fales, obstructing the highway; Myra Armitage (alias Rhodes) search and seizure upon person; Samuel Rubinstein, search and seizure; John E. Pelkey, search and seizure, three cases; Herbert Rowell, search and seizure, two cases; Fred Knight, search and seizure; Alice Ross and Michael Flynn, search and seizure; Dora Huntley, drunkenness, two cases; Joseph Driscoll, drunkenness; Lydia Clark, drunkenness; Jeremiah Cochran, drunkenness; Ralph Doherty, search and seizure; Levis Bachelder, search and seizure; George Heath, search and seizure; William H. Stackpole, search and seizure; Fred W. Lynn, search and seizure; Fred Winchell, drunkenness; and Myra Welner and Harry Levy, cheating by false pretences.

As we go to press the case of Frances E. Hurley, appellant, versus the Inhabitants of the Town of South Thomaston, is on trial before a drawn jury, with N. R. Tolman as foreman. This is one of a series of eight or ten cases brought by the town against South Thomaston on account of the change of the grade of the highway at Ingraham's Hill in 1904 at the time the South Thomaston street railway was constructed through that section of the town. The cases have been slumbering on the docket since the September term, 1905, nothing having been done in any of them except to file a motion to dismiss. This motion was made in the April Term, 1906, and the matter went to the Law Court on exceptions, that court dismissing the exceptions. This in brief is the history of these cases. The town is greatly interested in the outcome on account of the large number of cases pending.

In the case on trial the plaintiff asks the damage on account of the raising of the grade of the highway from three to six feet along the entire frontage of her lot. The house and lot in question originally belonged to the Pillsbury estate and are situated at the corner of Ocean avenue and South Main street. The house is now used as a tenement house and has been for many years.

At the time of making the cut in Ingraham's Hill in 1904, the town of South Thomaston used the rock removed for the building of the State road for that year, and made a deep fill at the foot of the hill in the vicinity of Mrs. Hurley's property. In 1905, and within one year after the building of the road, Mrs. Hurley applied to the municipal officers of South Thomaston for an assessment of damages.

FOREST FIRES CAUSED SCARE.

But As Yet No Dwellings Or Large Cottages Have Been Destroyed In Knox County.

Knox county has been the scene of several exciting forest fires the past few days devastating many acres of woodland and threatening houses and cottages in the several localities. Thus far the only building destroyed is a small portable cottage at Otter's Point, South Thomaston, owned by Cleveland Sleeper.

The Otter Point fire raged through a large tract of woodland owned by Fred F. Burpee of this city, getting near Lucia cottage and the Ashmere settlement as to cause the wild rumors to get about. The greatest danger from this fire came to the home-stand of Parris Rackliff, where a large crew did strenuous work in standing off the flames.

Across the river near Big Landing another big forest fire was in progress at the same time. It covered a very large area and quite a number of dwellings were in imminent peril.

The smoke from these fires made a very spectacular appearance from Ingraham's Hill Saturday afternoon, and on Sunday the scene of the two conflagrations was visited by hundreds of sightseers from Rockland and Thomaston.

A forest fire started Friday in the woods to the eastward of Carver's Pond, Vinalhaven, and Saturday owing to the heavy wind, gained such headway that the fire department was called out Saturday noon, a general alarm was given, to which practically all the townspeople responded. No houses were burned, although several caught fire. Yesterday the fire was well under control.

New Dreamland Theatre.

This afternoon will see the starting of a great big amusement bill at the New Dreamland Theatre, and many of the patrons have Manager P. Rosenberg's word that it will be a genuine amusement medium all this week. All of the pictures and songs have been carefully selected, each and every member on the program is of a quality to which no one can take exception.

Many people who have visited and who have never visited a moving picture show, have attended the New Dreamland Theatre, the past few weeks, and have expressed themselves as being greatly surprised at the entertainment, but agreeably so, as they can not imagine how it is possible to present so large and so varied a bill for the price.

IN SPORTING CIRCLES.

The Football Season Opens Tomorrow, Rockland High vs. Edward Little High

Other Sports.

The Edward Little high school football team of Auburn comes here tomorrow, and will open the local season in a game with Rockland High. Instead of playing with a lot of dub teams this season Manager Griffin has sought the best obtainable, and even if Rockland High gets trounced every time the spectators are assured of seeing first-class sport. The schedule after Wednesday is as follows:

Sept. 25—Open date.
Oct. 8—South Portland High at Rockland.

Oct. 10—Bucksport Seminary at Rockland.

Oct. 17—Belfast High at Rockland.

Oct. 24—Rockland High at Auburn.

Oct. 31—Rockland High at Bucksport.

Nov. 7—Rockland High at South Portland.

The men who are trying to make Rockland High this season have shown up very well in practice thus far. The members of last year's team noted in the lineup are Cates (captain), Flint, Bird, Griffin and Hall and there is a probability that McRea will be back with the team. The '08 team thus falls heir to some of the best material that the school had last season, which ought to give considerable advantage. In all there are 20 men in the practice squad.

A Sure Enough Knocker.

J. C. Goodwin, of Reidsville, N. C., says: "Bucklen's Arnica Salve is a sure enough knocker for ulcers. A bad one came on my leg last summer, but that wonderful salve knocked it out in a few rounds. Not even a scar remained." Guaranteed for piles, sores, burns, etc. 25c. at Wm. H. Kittredge's drug store, Rockland; G. I. Robinson Drug Co., Thomaston; R. W. Wiley's drug store, Vinalhaven.
